Johann Pachelbel
September 11, 1653 - March 9, 1706

Johann was a German composer, organist, and teacher who brought the south German organ schools to their peak. He is well known for his Canon in D. He composed a large body of sacred and secular music, and his contributions to the development of the chorale prelude and fugue have earned him a place among the most important composers of the middle Baroque era.
